COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

Columbia is the state capital and most populated city in South Carolina with an MSA population of roughly 795,000 people. Columbia is the county seat of Richland County and located in the middle of the state at the junctions of Interstates 20, 77 and 26. The city was built on a strong foundation of state government (capital), the nation's largest Army training facility (Fort Jackson) and six major universities, most notably the University of South Carolina (32,000 students).

TRANSPORTATION & CONNECTIVITY

Columbia is nationally ranked among the top five cities for highway connectivity with immediate access to I-77, I-26, I-20 and is a short drive from I-95. This provides convenient access to all of the bigger markets surrounding Columbia such as Charlotte, Charleston, Augusta, Atlanta, Greenville and more.

Columbia Metropolitan Airport (CAE) is the main commercial airport for the city and is located just 5 miles southwest of Columbia in Lexington County. The airport also serves as the southeast region cargo hub for UPS Airlines. Commercial rail service to Columbia is provided by both CSX and Norfolk Southern which maintains nearly 1,800 miles of track throughout the state. Passenger rail service is provided by Amtrak which has a station located on Pulaski Street near the Innovista District.
